History of the Club

In the Spring of 1988 several exotic bird owners and breeders, realizing the need for a bird club in the Knoxville area, started a club with the help of the University of Tennessee Veterinary College. The Club became official in the Fall of 1988 with their first election of officers. It became known as the Tennessee Valley Caged Bird Club. In later years the name was changed to the Tennessee Valley Exotic Bird Club (TVEBC).

Purpose Of The Club

- To facilitate the education of the club members, the pet trade, and the general public regarding husbandry, propagation, and disease of pet birds.
- To foster the preservation and propagation of all birds.
- To present educational programs, exhibits, activities, and competitive events in accordance with the general purpose of the club.

The Board of Directors

The board is not meeting at the present time, however when we do meet, it will be on the last Tuesday of each month in Knoxville, TN. Call Joy Henderson 865-483-1715 in advance of the meeting to verify date/time/place.
